

Jari Koivikko

Personal introduction

I have graduated from Helsinki University of Technology with degree of Master of Science (Technology) at 2008. My major was Software engineering and minor interactive digital media. I have been working in software and mobile device industry since 1997.

Professional Career

2009 - today	Teleca Finland	Senior Software Engineer Consulting
2007 - 2009	Sesca Mobile Platforms Oy	Software Designer Embedded Linux application development
2004 - 2006	Movial Oy	Software Developer Embedded Linux application development
1997 - 2001	Akumiitti Oy	Software Developer Database application development Web application development Authentication system design and development

Software skill details

My programming skills include 11 years professional usage of C with GDK and GTK+, C++ with Qt, Java and Perl. I also have basic understanding of wide range of other languages like Qt, SQL, Scheme/Lisp, Prolog, Tcl and Unix shell scripts. I have worked with tools like XEmacs, autotools, Scratchbox, Open Office, Scrumworks and LaTeX. I have worked on platforms like Unix, Linux and Maemo. My other skills include user interface and usability design and implementation knowledge, X11, file system and signal handling, www technologies (HTML, JavaScript, cgi, apache).

Language skills

My mothertongue is finnish, but my english is good. I can manage with reading written swedish. Some interest towards japanese in future.

Positions of trust

Helsinki Go Club	Treasury secretary	2005 - today
Helsinki Go Club	Member of board	2003 - 2004
Finnish Go Association	Vice President	2005
Finnish Go Association	Secretary	2004

Hobbies

My most active hobby is playing Asian boardgame of Go. I have played Ultimate frisbee almost two decades. I am also reading of ancient history and astronomy. I play occasionally role playing games.